

Adaptive Snowsports Program

Sign up for adaptive ski & snowboard lessons today!

Every winter, people with disabilities throughout the region enjoy the thrill of skiing and snowboarding by taking lessons through Crotoned Mountain Rehabilitation Center's Accessible Recreation and Sports (CMARS) program. Our certified recreation therapists and trained volunteers offer lessons for people with disabilities at all skill levels - from first-timers to seasoned veterans.

Registration:

Register and pay online at www.cmf.org/Snowsports

Payment Options

- Cash
- Credit card (online)
- Check - made payable to CMARS and send check to:
CMARS Registration
Crotoned Mountain Outpatient Services
1 Verney Drive, Greenfield, NH 03047

CROTCHED MOUNTAIN
Accessible Recreation and Sports

Lesson Dates

Begin on January 2 and run through Mid-March

Lesson Hours

Mondays, Wednesdays & Fridays: 10:00am, 1:00pm & 4:00pm

Saturdays & Sundays: 10:00am & 1:00pm

Advanced reservations only

Place

Lessons are held at Crotoned Mountain Ski and Ride in Bennington, NH

Pass Prices

$ 85 Single lesson - can be applied to a multi-lesson pass

$225 3 lesson pass

$375 5 lesson pass

$580 8 lesson pass

Passes include: lift ticket, helmet, equipment and private lesson for approximately 2 hours with two instructors, depending on weather conditions and endurance.

For more information:

Kristin Harris at 603.547.3311, ext. 1664

or cmars@crotonedmountain.org

www.cmf.org/Snowsports

Scholarships are available through the Harry Gregg Foundation online at www.crotonedmountain.org/HarryGregg